Which mortgage is right for me? Fixed or Adjustable-Rate

If you are starting to look for a home, now is the best time to research which type of home loan is best for you: a fixed-rate or adjustable-rate mortgage (ARM). We can help you with that decision.

Fixed-Rate Mortgage

A fixed-rate mortgage maintains the same interest rate and monthly payment throughout the life of the loan. This type of loan brings comfort and assurance to homeowners, knowing their rate and payment will not fluctuate.

Adjustable-Rate Mortgage (ARM)

An adjustable-rate mortgage will have an interest rate that can go up or down over the life of the loan. Typically, an ARM will give you a lower interest rate initially but it can rise or fall at specific intervals throughout the loan term.

HOME EQUITY LOANS

The smart way to pay off your big expenses.

Struggling under the weight of heavy expenditures like home improvement projects, medical bills, school tuition or even a big family vacation? A home equity loan might be just what you need.

Here's why:

- Low interest rates
- Potential for tax-deductible interest (consult your tax advisor)
- Ability to pull cash from a line of credit when you need it without having to reapply
- Personal service to help you match your goals with your budget

Why look elsewhere for a home equity loan when your Credit Union can get you the money you need, for less?

If your vehicle is totaled or stolen, will you be covered?

CAR INSURANCE PAYOUT

GAP PAYOUT

Your vehicle may be your pride and joy. But here's a reality check. Unless you've bought an exceptionally in-demand model, a new vehicle typically loses about 20% of its original value as soon as you take delivery. Unfortunately, that doesn't change the balance on your vehicle loan.

You can deflect some of this risk by adding Guaranteed Asset Protection (GAP) to your vehicle loan. If your vehicle is stolen or totaled, GAP will help pay the difference between the primary insurance settlement and what you may still owe. That could be a big relief if you need to come up with a down payment and replace a stolen or totaled vehicle immediately.

With the rising cost of vehicles, fast depreciation and longer vehicle loan terms GAP may be a smart option to add, helping to cover the negative equity gap.

How long will it take to double my money?

Compound interest is critical to investment growth. Whether your financial portfolio consists solely of a deposit account where you bank, or a series of highly leveraged investments, your rate of return is dramatically improved by the compounding factor.

With simple interest, interest is paid just on the principal. With compound interest, the return that you receive on your initial investment is automatically reinvested. In other words, you receive interest on the interest.

But just how quickly does your money grow? The easiest way to work that out is by using what's known as the "Rule of 72." The "Rule of 72" enables you to determine how long it will take for the money you've invested on a compound interest basis to double. You divide 72 by the interest rate to get the answer.

For example, if you invest $10,000 at 10 percent compound interest, then the "Rule of 72" states that in 7.2 years you will have $20,000. You divide 72 by 10 percent to get the time it takes for your money to double. The "Rule of 72" is a rule of thumb that gives approximate results. It is most accurate for hypothetical rates between 5 and 20 percent.

The Rule of 72 is a mathematical concept, and the hypothetical return illustrated is not representative of a specific investment. Also note that the principal and yield of securities will fluctuate with changes in market conditions so that the shares, when sold, may be worth more or less than their original cost. The Rule of 72 does not include adjustments for income or taxation. It assumes that interest is compounded annually. Obviously, results will vary.
